

Malangen

Ski trek to Haugafjellet (835 m above sea level)

Degree of difficulty: Medium

Equipment: Food, seating pad, change of clothes, spade, sun cream/sun glasses, ski wax and camera

Directions: Follow the purple route on the map. Turn right when you leave Malangen Brygger and drive towards Meistervik. After around 8 km, you reach an intersection (by Ludvik Pub), where you turn left towards Tromsø / Malangseidet. Continue around 3 km up the Eidbakkan incline. The trail is on your right just after you have reached the top of the incline. Park beside the main road or near the turn off on your right, ensuring your vehicle does not block fellow motorists. The trail is marked in red, but it can be poorly marked in winter. This is not a prepared trail but most likely someone will have skied here before you so finding the way should not normally be too hard. You can follow the mountain ridge right to the top. On a clear day, you will have a fantastic view towards the fjords of Malangen and Balsfjord, the city of Tromsø and across to Lyngen.

Distance: about 3.5 km
