Ski trek to Lian Gård – an experience

Degree of difficulty: Easy

Equipment: Food, seating pad, change of clothes, spade, sun cream/sun glasses, ski wax and camera

Distance: about 3.5 km

Directions: Follow the grey route on the map. You can ski the whole way from Malangen Brygger. Go first to the MC hut (the grey hut across the road, inside Malangen Brygger) and head upwards to the left of the hut. Continue upwards until you reach the lake Perkelvannet then turn slightly right while continuing on the main road up to Lian Gård (farm). The plan is to eventually mark this trail.

Other tips:

- If you want to ski on the mountain, this is perfect from Lian Gård (see the grey striped line – the trail is often prepared). This trail goes to Linken.
- For those who wish, it's also possible to drive by car up to Lian Gård. You start from Malangen Brygger and turn left onto the main road. Drive to the first intersection then turn right in the direction of Fjellbygda. The road rises gradually for around 4 km. Turn right at the intersection. Look for the second farm on the left-hand side of the road (about 2 km past the intersection) with a new barn and house. You can park at the farm or along the main road.
- Lian Gård sets up a lavvu (Sami herdsman's tent) at Easter where you can buy coffee and something good to eat. The farm is also known for its unique slopes in winter, so there are good opportunities for tobogganing and snowboarding.
